When I die
I won't be gone
I'll be living in the everlasting
While I'm here
I hope that I can find
The answers to the questions
Life keeps asking
Cause in the end, it's a new beginning
When I dream
I'm dreaming of a place
And a knowing that's impossible to learn
It it's here
Right before your eyes
Everywhere you go, everywhere you turn
Early in the morning
Late at night
Cause in the end
It's a new beginning
In my life
There's beauty everywhere
On the mountain high
And the valley so low
But when I leave
And my soul flies away
Somewhere to a place
That nobody really knows
When I get there
I probably won't write no letter
You just got to come on
And see for yourself
Cause in the end
Its a new beginning
Just gotta come on in
And see for yourself
Cause in the end
Its just a new beginning
