All dolled up
Never be store front
Ah ah ah ah
Chainsaw emotions stay captured
By selfish intentions
Influenced not by the strength of deception
Running on eyesores
Compounding rejection
Feeling unsettled
By subtle inflection
Look for relief
Grinding your teeth
Sold on regret
Real tied down
Lift unconscious
Ah ah ah ah
Overbite, fearful, satirically
under committed
Effortless edginess
Tall, dark and hidden
Undermined ecstasy
Instant decision
More than just therapy
It's your religion
Look for relief
Grinding your teeth
Sold on regret
Time stands still
So people change
Overkilled and rearranged
Stronger willed
But still deranged
Halfway thrilled through Almost chilled blue
