Ooh, ain't we lucky
And isn't it all so strange
But you look at me with a lovers eyes
And a mind that can't be changed

You and I are distant
To share a lifetime or two
But we're obviously different
And we don't know what to do

And I don't have a nickel to my name
But I love you anyway

On my way to clean the restrooms
And lock up all the doors
I saw your diamond earring
Bouncing lightly on the floor

And I picked it up so gently
And I placed it in your hand
You politely thanked me
And put it back on your [Incomprehensible]

But I don't have a nickel to my name
But I love you anyway

Well, I probably never touch you
Or even hold your hand
But one of these eternities
I'd love to be your man

Thoughts that I am thinking
Words I dare not say
And I can't deny my feelings
But there's all this bullshit in vain

But I don't have a nickel to my name
But I love you anyway

But I don't have a nickel to my name
But I love you anyway
