Flat Broke And Busted Keb Mo

Flat broke and busted, it just don't seem fair

The Man in Heaven, don't hear my prayer

And these dice are loaded, and I still can't win

Flat broke and busted, crapped out again

Maybe tomorrow, I'll see the light

And I'll know the difference, 'tween wrong and right

My ship is out there, but it can't come in

Flat broke and busted, crapped out again

And now I'm hangin' on tight, to the end of my rope

Somebody call me a preacher, yeah, let's call the Pope

Just the flip of a coin, the turn of a card

I'll be back up on top, damn, I'll be livin' Large

My ship is out there, but it can't come in

Flat broke and busted, all crapped out, crapped out again
