My heart is racin' but what Iâ€™m chasin' I don't have a clueÂ...

So I pray to heaven hopen angels will come, theyâ€™ll come and bring me peace.

And I sing the sunshine to sleep and hang my burdens on the evening breeze.

Actions tell you, what a hearts been up to but I don't have a clueÂ...

So I cry out, my friends won't listen, and no one cares to sail my dark seas.

So I sing the sunshine to sleep and hang my burdens on the evening breeze

Angel, don't let me go alone again tonight.

Would you please walk with me? The wind is heavy and it makes a lousy friend.

I wanna see the sunrise in me, face my fears and ride the evening breeze.

I wanna see the sunrise in me, face my fears and ride the evening breeze.

See the sunrise in meÂ...
