Run away from.
Your past.
You worthless coward.
And I hope this lasts.

I love you.
I can't let you go.
Can't let you go.

To see this end in such a way cause souls drift away.
You always stab me in my back.
Now it's time to die.

Goddamn you're gone.
The car was left running.
I know you're wrong.
There must have been something.
I know I'm gone.
There must have been something.
The car is gone.
You must have been running.

We'll drift away.
You always stabbed me in my back.
Now it's time to die.
I love you.
Now it's time to die.
I love you.
Can't let you go.
Can't let you go.

Bitch don't trust shit.
Keep your distance.

Running is the only thing you do.
