How do you sleep at night with, with all these monsters.
How do you sleep at night when you are a monster.

The boat is lowering.
Drowning at sea.
We are the suffering.
From below the reef.

All the parts ripped apart by the sharks.
Dismembered corpses floating into the sea.
Replace my name.
Erase my name.
All the parts ripped apart by the sharks.
Dismembered corpses floating into the sea.

So now I'm standing here on the star board.
Look at the ocean.
And set our sails out to sea.
Now I'm staring at the edge of my insanity.
All alone.
All alone.
Honestly how do you sleep.

God damn there's sharks in the water.
God damn they're here.
God damn there's sharks in the water.
God damn they're here.
God damn there's sharks in the water.

Dismembered surgically is the only regret I see.
Her demise is my rise, born.

So now I'm standing here on the star board.
Look at the ocean.
Set our sails out to sea.
Now I'm staring at the edge of my insanity.
I'm bring this ship down.

Please, please.
Let us live.
