Feeling good 'bout the way I am
How come you just can't let me be
Oh, I've got no use for your master plans
No one's running this life but me

Oh, 'cause I, I've to stand on my own
No, I can't lean on nobody else
'Cause I, I've learned a long time ago
I've got to keep looking out for myself

And you can keep all that junk to yourself

You keep warning me about the way I'm going
But my future's looking just fine
And I've got no use for your scary tales
I'm sure I've got long till I die

'Cause my time, you know, it's more important to me
Then to talk about angels and hell
'Cause I, I've read the Bible before
And I keep it right there on the shelf

And you can keep all that junk to yourself
Yeah, you can keep all that junk to yourself
Keep it all, yeah

Yes, I'm feeling real good 'bout my life right now
And I'm sure that for you it's all true
If it makes you happy, enjoy yourself
I'm so glad it's working for you

But for me, you know, I've got to stand on my own
No, I can't lean on nobody else
'Cause I, I've learned a long time ago
Got to keep looking out for myself

And you can keep all that jive to yourself
And you can keep all that junk to yourself
And you can keep all that junk to yourself

Keep it all now
Keep it all now

Keep it all now
Keep it all now
