Talk to me
Come into my bedroom
Come on
Come into my bedroom

Do you remember
The time we spent lovin' each other?
How much it meant?
You'd said we'd never
Never intend to fall apart
But you left me
You really broke my heart
I tried to play you
But you played me first
It was so foolish, oh, how it hurt?
I think about you, each and every day
Baby, hear these words I say, yeah

Can we make love for old time sake?
I remember girl the love we used to make
You were mine before you were his
Bring it on, bring it on, bring it on

Can we make love for old time sake?
I remember girl the love we used to make
You were mine before you were his
Bring it on, bring it on, bring it on

As I sit and wipe my eyes
I begin to question, why?
Ask myself what went wrong
Why we didn't last for long?
You blame me and I blame you
There was nothin' left to do
If we would've thought it out
We probably could've worked it out
Now you don't belong to me
I think about you constantly
What am I supposed to do?
I must've been a damn fool
To let your lovin' slip away

I think about you everyday
I must have been crazy, to let you get away

Can we make love for old time sake?
I remember girl the love we used to make
You were mine before you were his
Bring it on, bring it on, bring it on

Can we make love for old time sake?
I remember girl the love we used to make
You were mine before you were his
Bring it on, bring it on, bring it on

Girl I told you
He don't love you right
I know, he don't hold you tight
Girl, I know what you like
Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Can we make love?
Can we make love?
Can we make love?
Come on, come on
Can we make love?
Can we make love?
Can we make love?
See, he don't love you like I do
He don't
