Yeah

I wanna kick it off something, girl, like this to you

Yeah, come on

Here we go

My whole world has turned around

Ever since you walked into my life

My whole world has turned around

Ever since you walked into my life

Let me kick it like this to you

No more lonely days

And no more, girl, lonely nights

Ever since I met you, baby, oh, yeah

Everything is, oh, so right, oh, my baby

My whole world has turned around

Ever since you walked into my life

My whole world has turned around

Ever since you walked into my life

Yeah, let me kick the second verse

You got everything, baby

Any man could want from a woman, oh, yes, you do

Girl, let me lay my everything, baby, baby

My everything right down on you

My whole world has turned around

Ever since you walked into my life

My whole world has turned around

Ever since you walked into my life

I know what you need

I know what you like

I got it, baby, right here

Oh, girl, you're so nice

If you want my love

Girl, it's waitin' for you

Just lay your body down

There's nothing I wouldn't do

My whole world
My whole world
My whole world

My whole world
My whole world
My whole world
My whole world

My whole world has turned around
Ever since you walked into my life
My whole world has turned around
Ever since you walked into my life

My whole world has turned around
Ever since you walked into my life
My whole world has turned around
Ever since you walked into my life
