nothing remains
was there ever anything anyway why prolong a painful existence emptiness is not a reason for me to continue how long until I end it all

it's all disappearing
withering and slowly dying
I watch it die

Cast aside
As demons feed upon my grief
This may be too much for me to bear
I should be optimistic
But escape is far too tempting
How long until I end it all

It's all disappearing
Withering and slowly dying
I watch it die
I watch it disappear
It all wants to die

My world is cold and without hope
And without hope

This emptiness will be forever
I watch it disappear
It's all disappearing

How long can I hold onto something That was never there
How long until I take these matters
Into my own hands
I watch it disappear
I see it slowly dying
I watch it wither away
Will I watch it die
