Lord I fell for her smile
And she loved me for a while
Then she said "Good bye gotta go"
Left me standing on the side of the road
Now she's gone and I'm a memory in her past
And the long and short that some things never last

Because summers come, summers go
I'll keep walking down this road
It's alright and it's okay
I'll live to love another day
I'll live to love another day

Lord I'm out here again
With my back to the wind
The warm sun that's sinking low
Is gonna leave me out in the cold
But the long and short of it some things never last
And if that goes for the good it must go for the bad
It do believe it with

Because summers come, summers go
I'll keep walking down this road
It's alright and it's okay
I'll live to love another day
I'll live to love another day

If I fall down I'm not ashamed
I always get back up again
But I'll be fine 'till the right one comes
To save me, save me, save me

Lord I fell for her smile
And she loved me for a while
And someday she's gonna wish
She hadn't left me here like this

Because summers come, summers go
I'll keep walking down this road
It's alright and it's okay
I'll live to love another day
I'll live to love another day

I'll live to love another day
I'll live to love another day
I'll live to love another day
Watch me now
