We may not have the finest things
But what we have is worth so much more
Fancy cars and diamond rings
Just can't compare to the love we share

Whenever I look in your eyes
To me it seems that loving you was meant to be Each time I hold you in my arms
I can feel the passion burning inside, mmmm

When it comes to you, hey
Nothin' in the world is good enough
That's the way I feel, Cause I love you too much
When it comes to you
There ain't nothin' I wouldn't do

Some people said we'd never last
Thought that in time my love was bound to fall
But we held on tight and proved them wrong
We showed them all that our love was strong

No matter what stands in our way
We will survive and, girl our love will never die True love will always see us through
Just as long as you and I believe, oh baby

When it comes to you, hey
Nothin' in the world is good enough

That's the way I feel, 'cause I love you too much
When it comes to you
There ain't nothin' I wouldn't do, oh oh

So just lay back, let's enjoy each other
Take this time to reward one another
Now is the time to feel our minds
Come on, let's go, right now

My love... when it comes to you
Nothin' in the world is good enough
That's the way I feel, 'cause I love you too much, lady

When it comes to you
There ain't nothin' I wouldn't do, hey hey

When it comes to you
Nothin' in the world is good enough
That's the way I feel, 'cause I love you too much, my baby
When it comes to you
There ain't nothin' I won't ever, won't ever do for you

When it comes to you, no lady
Nothin' in the world is good enough
That's the way, that's the way, that's the way I feel,
baby
