[music & lyrics: Jeff]

Understanding the patterns of social life - to bring forth contradictory

Goals - there is no double-standard in any stance - to fight for something

Worth to fight for - a clash of interests - reconciliation is nonsense -

When law has been paralyzed - regulations out of order
- who wants to Bring a fresh air to this sick violent world? - smell of death as we

Breathe - can we make a stand? - mass confusion in the wake of grand

Ignorance - political maneuvers, dancing on a vicious circle - "divide et Impera", a plot of reducing power of pawns - we, people are just too

Uneducated to be aware - a clash of interests - victims of a new

Democratic atmosphere - the ones with necrophilic minds shall rise - and None can stop them as everyone's free - who dares to bring a fresh air to

This sick violent world? - smell of death as we breathe - can we make a

Stand? - an opera of madness we found each day - waging destruction,

Fascination on deaths - with such weapons and C4's ready to kill -

Paranoid grandiosity or necrophilic fantasy? - time for confirmation - to Speak louder than before - a life in a violent society - we shall stand...
