When you sitting down reading this don't take it wrong you know I will always be here for you but my heart just moved on got to got to get it off my chest trust me it's for the best got to lot of things I'm going through that I have to do alone I I been trying to word this right I,I can't look you in the eye why, why is what's on your mind why, why can I figure it out No easy way to say good bye I don't want to go and tell you lies no more fighting me to try it's just time no easy way to let you go you know you never did nothing wrong I just gotta go my way its time for me to go I understand if you need your space I realized that your heart would break that's the last thing I wanna do but I always told the truth I,I wrote this a million times I,I still need you in my life Why, Why is whats on your mind Why, Why I guess there really is no easy way to say good bye I don't want to go and tell you lies no more fighting me to try it's just time no easy way to let you go you know you never did nothing wrong I just gotta go my way its time for me to go so you know that I hurt you and I know I hurt gotta let it go cause I need odds to reveal my goal its not you this is just something that I got to go through but why it gotta be so harrrrrrrrrd

I guess there really is no easy way to say good bye I don't want to go and tell you lies no more fighting me to try it's just time no easy way to let you go you know you never did nothing wrong I just got to go my way it's time for me to go repeat I
