I'm alone, headstrong now, we on a mission
Stompin' out all the rules of the game.
Ante up, sleeves up, now you got the vision,
Bullet proof and
We're not gonna change.

The world's eyes lookin' down
Cuz we seem different.
We got each other and who cares who knows.
If ignorance is bliss, why they still bitchin'.
Haters eat our dust
Cuz the wind's gonna blow.

They say that we are only
Hopeless and alone and they say,
We don't know who we are.
Hold on now.
They can't come between us, they'll never
Defeat us.
We won't break so easily.
Hold on now.

Come out of the darkness.
I know that you can find your way somehow.
Trust you're gonna find it.
Baby it's alright, you're born to fly.
Just hold on.

Misfits won't quit, get your arms up,
No one else can bring it like us.
Rock and roll with the punches, lights out.
Hold on when the going gets tough.

They say that we are only
Hopeless and alone and they say,
We don't know who we are.
Hold on now.
They can't come between us, they'll never
Defeat us.
We won't break so easily.
Hold on now.

Come out of the darkness.
I know that you can find your way somehow.
Trust you?re gonna find it.
Baby it?s alright, you?re born to fly.
Just hold on
Just hold on
Just hold on
Just hold on
Hold on now
Hold on
Hold on
Hold on
Yeah?

Come out of the darkness.
I know that you can find your way somehow.
Trust you?re gonna find it, I said.
Baby it?s alright, you?re born to fly.
Just hold on
Just hold on
Just hold on
Just hold on
I said just hold on
I said just hold on
Just hold on
