I made some big mistakes
I can't take back yesterday
But it's too hard
To live this way
When your heart
Is a million miles away

(Yea)

I get tired and
It makes me mean
The cruel words
Aren't what you need
And I know
That we both agree
That sometimes life gets down on me

And two hours on the interstate

I get quiet and start to pray
But it feels like I've lost my faith
We can't work it out

There's a sharp pain
In my soul
No cars on the county road
What I would give to Change my faith
When your heart is
A million miles away

When your heart is
A million miles away
When your heart is
A million miles away
