Been running a place for such a long time
Stuck in a race in the wrong line
When it all came down on me
And I haven't had faith in such a long time
...a place of head of my mind
Should it all fall down on me

It's not enough to live, so just dream
It's not enough to live, so just dream
It's not enough to live, so just dream
It's not enough to say, so just scream

they'll never know
if you don't let it out
You have enough
They'll call your bluff
You can't back down lost in a crowd
You've won the right to scream and shout
They'll talk about
You've lost your cool
There is no boy who makes the rules
So let's get to it
Now you'll do it
Break out
Scream and shout
Scream and shout
Scream and shout
Scream and shout

Been running a place for such a long time
Stuck in a race in the wrong line
When it all came down on me
And I haven't had faith in such a long time
...a place of head of my mind
Should it all fall down on me

It's not enough to live, so just dream
It's not enough to live, so just dream
It's not enough to live, so just dream
It's not enough to say, so just scream

Sound the alarm

Raise your arms
You're on your own
But not alone
Make cities...you're on the ground ...
Afraid to fight, don't make a sound
So let's get to it
Now you'll prove it

Punch back
Scream and shout
Scream and shout
Scream and shout
Schream and shout

Been running a place for such a long time
Stuck in a race in the wrong line
When it all came down on me
And I haven't had faith in such a long time
...a place of head of my mind
Should it all fall down on me

It's not enough to live, so just dream
It's not enough to live, so just dream
It's not enough to live, so just dream
It's not enough to say, so just scream

Break the chains
The walls are falling down
Break the chains
The walls are falling down
Break the chains
The walls are falling down
Break the chains
The walls are falling down
Here it comes
The walls keep falling down
Here it comes
The walls keep falling down
Here it comes
The walls keep falling down
Here it comes
The walls keep falling down

Been running a place for such a long time
Stuck in a race in the wrong line
When it all came down on me
And I haven't had faith in such a long time
...a place ahead of my mind
Should it all fall down on me

It's not enough to live, so just dream

It's not enough to live, so just dream
It's not enough to live, so just dream
It's not enough to say, so just scream
