I aint crooked
Although I follow the path of least resistance no I aint crooked
Although I follow the path of least resistance I'm just trying to do my thing maintain my existence

I aint stupid
Although I did not complete all of my schooling no I aint stupid
Although I did not complete all of my schooling I aint crooked I aint stupid and I aint foolin'

(Wow wow wow wow wow)

I aint scared
Although I may appear to be shaken
No I aint scared
Although I may appear to be shaken I aint wakin' to the fakin' bakin' partakin' the headache in cornflakin' I ain't fakin' baby

I aint special
But my momma tell me that it's true I aint nothing to write home about baby but my momma tell me that it's true
I know one thing is for sure I'm lucky I got you

(Trumpet, whistle solo!)

(Hey brother hey this is chicken trappin fred calling Just wonderin if tomorrow I'm supposed to be coming out on your farm and do a little skunk trappin', maybe some squirrel trappin and maybe some of that chipmunk trappin anything furry quite honestly because I really got this itch to catch uh little furry animals and skinning em and just making little nifty clothes out of them you know like little booties for babies, and uh, you know some of those racoon hats, and anywho you know uhh just give me a call back sometime when you've got the chance and we'll talk about this trappin.)

I aint wealthy but yall know sometimes it's fun to pretend I aint go no money baby no Yall know sometimes it's fun to pretend they say you can't take it with you when you leave so you might as well spend

I aint crooked
although I follow the path of least resistance
no I aint crooked
although I follow the path of least resistance I just try to do my thing maintain my existence
you just try to do your thing maintain your existence we'll just try and do our thing maintain our existence.
