I believe in the love that you seek, when you're waiting around and you just might take it All alone got the call, when you feel when it's on and the shaking little thoughts might make it I know that when you go, you got me seeing little mind and you just might fake it I know that when you show, you got a little love in mind and we just might make it I believe that we are something you see, in the back of your mind when you just can't believe it

I believe I cannot be what I cannot see Looking down in all of this when I make believe I feel it close and I see the sign, and it's so divine But all of this time to find, now I can't find the words

Wait around for the one that you call when you're wasting your time,
But you just might take it You believe that the earth and a seed, make a simple little lie
That will probably make it
I know that when you go,
you got me seeing little mind you just might fake it I know what when you show,
you got a little love in mind and we just might make it

The words little lover, and you say you will When I'm crawling undercover, you know I want it all Counting on the ways, and I've gone astray, if I feel in morning when you've gone away Then I know it's right Hours gone but minutes stay, it's hard to say, what I want but I've been pulled around and pushed away
I can't be wrong, I must be wrong
But I can't be wrong

Today

I could be the cover, a painted a tone of white Take a chance, discover What could give me the time, to fly, alright, I'll find,
But I give away, a man, I'm gonna try to fake through Get by today, is why I feel this way I slip the truth into a plan that I won't take to The end cause I won't ever feel this way, I say, I pray, today

Is it the way that I fall That keeps me away from it all Hoping I will never hurt again How can I feel like tomorrow today?
How can I live with this sorrow?
I pray, how can I feel like tomorrow today?

Keep coming I can roll the pain now I don't ever wanna feel this way Keep coming I can roll the pain Cause I can write all of the tears I provide And I'll make them I'll make them mine

Let me escape
Let me get out of this place
Said I got to find a way Bring me my tomorrow
