When weâ€™re together thereâ€™s no better than you and I

And I donâ€™t know what happened when we started to fight

But my pride is turning me to stone
I canâ€™t let it go

I didnâ€™t mean what I said when I started it all
I held your heart in my hands and I turned it on and off
Just to see the reaction and what youâ€™d do
Iâ€™m such a fool

And now Iâ€™m all alone and I donâ€™t know where to go

And Iâ€™m wondering what youâ€™re thinking
Iâ€™m just, wondering what youâ€™re thinking

I watched you as you cried
My face didnâ€™t let you know
My heart was slowly breaking
As I packed my bags to go

Iâ€™m begging you tonight
Please pick up the phone
My hands are pale and shaking
I donâ€™t want to let you go

We started on a topic and I wouldnâ€™t drop it Venom in our words and we stopped talking Yelling at each other like two strangers at a bar and Too drunk to see the fight that we were starting

I never really understood
How you could go and hurt
Someone you loved so much but, Words come out in ways
And you can never take them back
I wish that I -- could take them all back
