I need to break free
Live it all for me
I gotta refuse the rules and attitudes
And who I oughta be
I gotta take in my time
To feel I'm living my life
I'm gonna walk the road alone
Because I know the truth
And the truth is I will not lose
I won't lose

Its not that I want to
Its not that I need to
I gotta break away from all the shit
That I've been through
Seen in the distance
Checking the review
I'll prove that I can make it own
I'm singing

I'm the one
Who's better on the run
Taking the chance
I'm living day by day
I'll never be outdone
Get a little today
I'd rather have it this way
While I'm paying my dues
Busy making these moves, to prove
That the truth is I will not lose
I won't lose
