I wouldn't kiss your lips so sweet
If you were the last boy on earth
You never think before you speak
And you always want much more than you're worth

And I'll put you down
If you come any nearer
I ain't playin' round
Now can I make myself clearer?

You don't qualify to kiss my feet
And when you think of me, I hope that it hurts
Guess, I'd have to cry myself to sleep
If you were the last boy on earth

So don't come around here
Tryin' to persuade me
"Cause I got you down
I know you'll only betray me

Ah yeah, there was a time I might have jumped through hoops for you
Ah yeah, but now I do whatever I wanna do
Ah yeah, so just forget that you ever kissed me
Get outta here and let me finish my whiskey

'Cause I'll put you down
If you come any nearer
I ain't playin' round
Now can I make myself clearer?

And I'll put you down
If you come any nearer
I ain't playin' round
Now can I make myself clearer?

Not if you're the last boy
Not if you're the last boy
Not if you're the last boy on earth
