Raindrops are fallin'
 but a i don't might
 no need to call me
 i'll be there on time

Every step brings me clouser
 to you Senses excited
 the night's still young my heart is delighted
 the tip of my tongue
 taste the melody of bubbles in champagne

Cause when i see you sunlight in the rain
 and when i feel you sunlight in the rain

Feels like a rainbow
 over my heart
 baby when you show
 a symphony starts
 to play inside i'm so glad you came

 and when i feel you sunlight in the rain

eye to eye
 adore you
 and i'll show
 you tonight
 take me to the storm
 stay with me 'till down with you i reborn

 and when i feel you sunlight in the rain
