Got my hands in my pockets
And a head for romance
There's a pill on my tongue
You wanna dance?

Got my hands in my pockets
And a head for romance
There's a pill on my tongue
You wanna dance?

Come on, brother, I know you're dying
To lose your senses, set your soul free
You're the ether, man, I ain't lying
It's so expensive, all this beauty, yeah, alright

See the moon in my eye
So you think I'm a spy
But I'm just a voyeur
You wanna fly?

Come on, sister, you should be flying
To lose your senses, set your soul free
You're the ether, man I ain't lying
It's so expensive, all this beauty, yeah, alright

Nothin' goes deeper than my love
Nothin' goes deeper than my love
Nothin' goes deeper than my love
Nothin' goes deeper, baby

Come on, brother, I know you're dying
To lose your senses, set your soul free
You're the ether, man, I ain't lying
It's so expensive, all this beauty, yeah, alright

Come on, sister, you should be flying
To lose your senses, set your soul free
You're the ether, man, I ain't lying
It's so expensive, all this beauty, yeah, alright
