(It's hard enough to say good-bye) Well she's your favorite
(It scars you up and the tears you cry) Will they ever end
(You're just by yourself) These feelings aren't going nowhere
() Some how that doesn't seem fair

I can't breathe is what she told me
Forever's such a long time
I've gotta prove something, something to myself
Maybe in the end, well I can be your best friend
First time I've thought of myself
Now I gotta find the one that's right for me

(The times we shared) It's like you never ever cared (They don't mean that much to you) Now you gotta find something better
() Frustrated when you know it could work
() Show me, tell me that's something I'm not

I can't breathe is what she told me
Forever's such a long time
I've gotta prove something, something to myself
Maybe in the end, well I can be your best friend
First time I've thought of myself
Now I gotta find the one that's right for me

I can't breathe is what she told me
Forever's such a long time
I've gotta prove something, something to myself
Maybe in the end, well I can be your best friend
First time I've thought of myself
