Did you know that you're my favourite patient?
Did you know that you're my favourite patient here?

Did you know that you're my favourite patient?
Did you know that you're my favourite patient here?
Did you know that I need you?
Did you know that I need this treatment more than you do?

When you find it hard to breathe
And your heart has skipped a beat
We'll rush you to intensive care and declare emergency

Well I'm not gonna lie to you,
This is gonna hurt like nothing that you've ever felt,
This is gonna hurt like hell.
And if it takes us through the night
I'll sleep when you are alright,
I'll sleep when you're fine
When you regain all vital signs

Do you remember love?
Do you remember love for the first time?
I'm sorry to say,
I'm sorry it'll never be like that again

When you find it hard to breathe
And your heart has skipped a beat
We'll rush you to intensive care and declare
emergency

I'm not gonna lie to you
This is gonna hurt like nothing that you've ever felt
This is gonna hurt like hell
And if it takes us through the night
I'll sleep when you are alright
I'll sleep when you're fine
When you regain all vital signs

Don't panic, grin and bare it.

It will all end soon I promise you
Don't panic, grin and bare it.
It will all end soon I swear to you

Did you know you're my favourite?
Just know that you're my favourite patient
My favourite patient here

I'm not gonna lie to you
This is gonna hurt like nothing that you've ever felt
This is gonna hurt like hell
And if it takes us through the night
I'll sleep when you are alright
I'll sleep when you're fine
When you regain all vital signs
