Bought a one way ticket to the west coast near the mountain tops
He's gonna change his life around He's gotta get away from the every day life that he's always lived

Grew up never knowing right from wrong It's hard to change something When it's been this way for so long
And then he told me with a tear in his eye
"I don't think I'll ever change my life Can't just pack my bags and run away" (Away) We all know that some things, some things just can't change

I know when you're gone some things will have to
change
I know when you're gone some things will have to
change

Now he's back, it's one year later Nothing seemed to change Except he shaved his head and anger now fills his veins
He's mad at the world, he's mad at everyone He's ashamed of the man he has become

And then he told me with a tear in his eye
"I don't think I'll ever change my life Can't just pack my bags and run away" (Run away)
We all know that some things, some things just can't
change

I know when you're gone some things will have to
change
I know when you're gone some things will have to
change

Where will he be years from now?
Oh, he's still around
