Take a look at where you are and that how you got there

Don't even tell me that your life hasn't been fair

Took a lot of hard work but not by you

May be a success but tell me who made

What I know is what's wrong with yours

Your whole life you just a band wars

Get a life and stay out of mine

Say man, don't wanna hear you whine no more

Backstab just to get your own way

Still I try to make it some day

Complain a little more and cry about it

Like I said before, it won't do shit

Used to be the best of friends

Now we can't even make a mends

You told the world I did so wrong

Guess it's time to say "So long"

What I know is what's wrong with yours

Your whole life you just a band wars

Get a life and stay out of mine

Say man, don't wanna hear you whine no more

Not everyone is perfect like you

Apparently you're something that we're not

I remember the times we had I used to think they were the best

But somehow you think you're better than all the rest

I remember the times we had I used to think they were the best

But somehow you're thinking you're better, better than all the rest

What I know is what's wrong with yours

Your whole life you just a band wars

Get a life and stay out of mine

Say man, don't wanna hear you whine no more
