I said, "Maybe we'd be better off leaving this town, oh"
You said, "Baby, I don't know how we'd ever get out, yeah"

Just get into the car and drive
We could be in a whole other world by midnight
In another state of mind

And let's live out all the plans we had for us
When we were younger
And let's run free, baby like we used to and
Take our chances under
Bluer skies, bluer skies

Kiss me and if you wanna go to Heaven I will, yeah
You can tell me how you think I'm beautiful, still Can't you feel it in the air?

I just know in my heart that there's more out there
And it could be anywhere

And let's live out all the plans we had for us
When we were younger
And let's run free, baby like we used to and
Take our chances under
Bluer skies, bluer skies
Bluer skies, bluer skies

Love me when the day is through
Carry me beyond the blue
Love me, love me

And let's live out all the plans we had for us
When we were younger
And let's run free, baby like we used to and
Take our chances under
Bluer skies, bluer skies
Bluer skies, bluer skies

And let's live out all the plans we had for us
When we were younger
