Ohhhh

Maybe, tonight
We could close the door and lock ourselves inside
Take time to feel
I don't wanna miss the chance to be so real
The days all fly away and i forget the truth
Everything that matters is in this room
When you lie next to me
Breathing the air I breathe
We don't have to speak
And just be
Our love's a precious thing
Don't wanna a waste a day
Or one more minute
Without you in it
Life is so sweet
When you lie next to me

My heart is yours
And every part of me still wants to give you more
More time to love
Cause you never know when life will leave us
I wanna take in all the beauty here
Let the world around us just disappear

When you lie next to me
Breathing the air I breathe
We don't have to speak
And just be
Our love's a precious thing
Don't wanna a waste a day
Or one more minute
Without you in it
Life is so sweet
When you lie next to me

When you lie next to me
Breathing the air I breathe
We don't have to speak
And just be
Our love's a precious thing

Don't wanna a waste a day
Or one more minute
Without you in it
Life is so sweet
When you lie next to me

When you lie next to me...
