When my time comes to an end
Don't be sad
Don't you shed one tear
Take me back to the place
I love the most
All my best memories were made
In my time here

Don't be sad or broken hearted
Spread my ashes in the shoe department
Everybody knows that's where I want be
Jimmy choo choo, saks fifth avenue
For all eternity smells like heaven to me

Why be sad when you can smile
If I must go I'm going out in style

Don't be sad or broken hearted
Spread my ashes in the shoe department

Everybody knows that's where I want to be
Jimmy Choo choo, saks fifth avenue
For all eternity smells like heaven to me

Jimmy Choo choo, saks fifth avenue
For all eternity smells like heaven to me

Spoken:
Do you have prada?
Gucci? oh that'll work
Excuse me do you have this in a 6 1/2
Oh you only have 5's left
Oh we'll make it work
Hey do they come in red
Do you have them in a wedge
I'm gonna need at least a 5 inch heel
Oh yeah omg look at these over here
