The pain within

“Y is it when I hurt my self
You decide to care”

The burning sensation
Going up and down my arm
A tingle across my scaple
Which makes everything sound like an alarm

As I placed that fucking blade
Next to my skin
I press down to relieve the pain within

Chorus:
You’ll never know how it feels, to be me
You’ll never understand what its like, to be me
I may act perfectly fine on the outside
But on the inside im losing control.

Oooo oooo

I stare up at the ceiling
And start to look down
Finally realized what im really about
I only did this because I knew you didn’t care

Chorus:
You’ll never know how it feels, to be me
You’ll never understand what its like, to be me
I may act perfectly fine on the outside
But on the inside im losing control.

"maybe if i do it some more will u start to realise whats going on"
