Let's wake up in the afternoon
Pretend that we got nothing to do
No we don't have to go by any agenda
We can make up our own rules
I see the way you're looking at me
Baby now I'm feeling it too
We can just light up every candle
Move from room to room
Stopping every minute
Just because you're in it
Wishing everyday was Sunday
You're right next to me
It's how it's supposed to be
Hanging on every touch
Baby, don't rush
Baby, don't rush
Throwing the map out the window
Taking the long way around
To a secret place where no one can find us
A little place we can call our own
Come over here and take a picture
Something we can hang on to
We can look back and try to remember
All the crazy things we're gonna do
Stopping every minute
Just because you're in it
Wishing everyday was Sunday
You're right next to me
It's how it's supposed to be (supposed to be)
Just hanging on every touch
Baby, don't rush
Baby, don't rush
Ooo-yeah, Ooo-yeah
Stopping every minute
Just because you're in it
Stopping every minute
Just because you're in it
Stopping every minute
Stopping every minute
Just because you're in it
Wishing everyday was Sunday
You're right next to me

It's how it's supposed to be
Stopping every minute
Just because you're in it
Wishing everyday was Sunday
You're right next to me
Baby, don't rush
Now, now
Baby, don't rush (baby don't rush)
Baby, don't rush now
Baby, don't rush
