Roll over baby
The time has come
To make a little more room
I've hung around you
It's getting tough
I think I'm gonna break down soon
'Cuz I remember
Crying in the park
It was getting dark
Suddenly I looked up
You were my sky

So go on
And sleep darlin'
Why don't you pretend we were just a dream
It's cool, baby
It doesn't matter anyway
Well I'm so sorry
Got to the station a little too late
Such a shame
Just missed the train
Just missed the train

Be quiet angel
Don't make a sound
Just save it for a rainy day
Oh can't you see me
I'm such a mess
Just trying hard to find my way
You remember wasting all the time
We were feeling fine
Though we couldn't walk the line
We were all right

So go on
And sleep darlin'
Why don't you pretend we were just a dream
It's cool, baby
It doesn't matter anyway
Well I'm so sorry

Got to the station a little too late
Such a shame
Just missed the train

Oh why let strangers pass us by Didn't anyone see we were so (?)
Oh we would've made it I'm telling you

Yeah
Yeah
Yeah

So sleep darlin
Why don't you pretend we were just a dream
It's cool, baby
It doesn't matter anyway
Well I'm so sorry
Got to the station a little too late

So sleep darlin
Why don't you pretend we were just a dream
It's clear baby
It doesn't matter anyway
Well I'm so sorry
Such a shame
Just missed the train
