Well I've been down to my last dime
Down to my last dance
Down to the last time
Down to my last chance

Well I've been down to nothing, left at all a time or two
This time I think I'm down to something, I can't afford to lose

Chorus:

I think I'm down to my last broken heart
I think I'm falling in love with you
I'm just afraid to start
But untill I know for sure our love won't fall apart
Cause I think I'm down to my last broken heart

Well I can feel the spark of love and it's a sweet dream
But will there be enough to keep on burning
Well I've felt the flame of love before
And I watched it burning out
This time I wanna know for sure, without a doubt

Repeat chorus
