Waiting for a call
Huddled in a ball

I didn't mean to yell again
I didn't mean to scream again
I meant to say I miss you
I meant to say I love you
But it came out all wrong again
It came out all wrong

Wearing all your clothes
This is what you chose

I didn't mean to yell again
I didn't mean to scream again
I meant to say I missed you
I meant to say I love you
But it came out all wrong again
It came out all wrong
