-Audrey-

Audrey was a girl that sat in my classroom she never said a word she just sat there furtively I never noticed her until I heard the radio telling about the way she took her life today it's all upon the covers of the papers about her folk at home I guess her daddy's a drinker her mommy left her when she was just a little child oh tell me Audrey, was it the first time you felt abounding ness

hold on baby
don't be sorry every day has it's ups and downs
hold on baby
there will be sunshine every life has it's stormy nights comes to think about it there is some things that can't be called about her arms they had blue spots on them I remember to think it starts to myself

is it wrong to wonder about somebody else problems I'm not burning with at all

hold on baby, ...
...that she lays down on the bottoms of the river tell me what crime did it take to take this girls only willingness but I will pray that someday, she'll rise again!

If you're out there I hope you can see my sorrow and pain of guilt

I never asked you how you were but one thing I can assure you after witnessing what is been done I will open my heart to the new girl that sits next door!
hold on baby,...
