In the eyes of the Lord I am redeemed,
He has purified my blood and washed me clean.
I have said goodbye to sorrow, as I lay before the cross His goodness and His mercy saved the child that was lost,
In the eyes of the Lord, I am redeemed.

In the world of the Lord I have a home,
I don't have to fight temptation on my own,
Sending prayers on up to Heaven,
To the wonder of his name,
Brings a fire to my spirit over the blessings fall like rain
In the world of the Lord I have a home.

Through His love and tender mercy I am free,
He has loosened all the chains binding me,
And now I raise my hands in glory as I give my life to prayer.
It's always being helped along by faith and His great care,
Through His love and tender mercy I am free.

When my God came to earth a humble man.
With His part of great divine, master plan, When they crucified our savior and they set the captives free
Death would lose them in, over you and over me.
When my God came to earth a humble man.

And I have said goodbye to sorrow as I lay before the cross
With His goodness and His mercy saved the child that was lost,
In the eyes of the Lord I am redeemed, in the eyes of the Lord I am redeemed, Yeah, I am redeemed.
