Guide me home, oh, great Jehova, pilgrim through this paradigm,
I am weak, and thou art my handy, hold me with Thy powerful hand.
Great of Heaven, great of Heaven, feed me 'till I want
no more.
Feed me 'till I want no more.

Oh, open now, crystal fountain, with Thou healing
string of foam
They hear the fire, cloudy pillar, lead me home, my journey through.
Strong the liver, strong the liver, be Thy still my strength of heel.
Be Thy still my strength of heel.

Waiting our trail, the verge of the Jordan,
Bathe my anxious fear subside.
The heath of death, and here's the instructions,
Land me safe on Keyleen's side.

Songs of praysers, songs of praysers,
I will ever give to Thee, I will ever give to Thee,
I will ever give to Thee.

Great of Heaven, great of Heaven, feed me 'till I want
no more.
Feed me 'till I want no more, feed me 'till I want no more,
Feed me 'till I want no more.
