I awaken now to find that I'm falling down
I ride on that tide of emotion I sail away
Around in those circles it takes breath away

We found of life out in those clouded minds
We made all those old dark skies alight again
A full moon shines overhead

We look out at night
Waves surround the light
We freefall down once again
With a shining moon over head
Oh we found of a way that dreams only know
We freefall down
We live for the now we freefall down

I try to stand
But a fire burns it takes me back
A longtail of finer moments swim again
Our dreams held overhead

We look out at night
Waves surround the light
We freefall down once again
With a shining moon over head
Oh we found of a way that dreams only know
We freefall down
We live for the now we freefall down

We freefall down oooohhhh
Freefall down oooohhhh
We live for the now
We live for the now
And freefall down
