I quietly wait in blind hope
You're miles away as I hold out for more Going out of my way I try to find words for A voice in my head as you stay alone
Somewhere now a wonder awaits for this lifeless soul
and its somewhere I know

Don't wait for daylight to find a place
Oh don't let me down now or try to walk away
As time and space won't forever stand
Oh don't let me down oh just don't let me down

As I found a sign of better days
The whirlwind breaks on You wake and look out at the pouring rain with eyes that showed
To inspire those journeys from a time of old
Somewhere now a wonder awaits for this lifeless soul
and its somewhere I know

Don't wait for daylight to find a place
Oh don't let me down now or try to walk away
As time and space won't forever stand
Oh don't let me down oh just don't let me down

I keep looking away and hope for more
I never find enough of our words to say and hope for more
But I know that it could change, as I know
That somewhere now a wonder awaits for this lifeless soul and its somewhere I Know

So don't wait for daylight to find a place
Oh don't let me down now or try to walk away
As time and space won't forever stand
Oh don't let me down oh just don't let me down
Don't let me down now
As I wait for a moment to form, I hope for more
I wait for a moment to form and I hope for more.
