You're running off far away from all I thought we had Just stay a while let me take your mind back To imagine if our shadows had stood their ground that day
And never gone to weather the storm in the shade
I could live a lie and throw it away
I could run with nothing to say
But it's not over yet

One day I won't live with what could have been
As you'll pretend to let me know and I'll try to believe
Or we'll lie around in wonder of what could have been getting older

For the little things in life we shared give it another go
Don't sit there longing for tomorrow
As you know one day light will catch our cause
Though life rolls on a silent pause
A little hope would go a long long way now
I could live a lie and throw it away
I could run with nothing to say
But it's not over yet

One day I won't live with what could have been
As you'll pretend to let me know and I'll try to believe
Or we'll lie around in wonder of what could have been
getting older

I'm sitting back it's been far too long
I've been without your pretty face
Won't you come home just come home

I could live a lie and throw it away
I could run with nothing to say
But it's not over yet

One day I won't live with what could have been
As you'll pretend to let me know and I'll try to believe
Or we'll lie around in wonder of what could have been
getting older

It's been far too long

We wander side by side in our dreams
Of what could have been
