Oh
what's he doing when he looks in my eyes

I get the feeling that I know I can't hide.
My heart is pounding and my lips are on fire

My pulse is rising and I feel with desire.
And when he looks at me I know there's gonna be Some hot love.

Hot love
a lot of hot love

Hot love
a lot of hot love. - Oh
hot love.
Hot love
a lot of hot love

Hot love
a lot of hot love.

I fall into his arms and he holds me tight

He smiles and asks me if I'm feeling alright.
He's got the kinda looks that I can't resist

He's got the kinda lips that I long to kiss

Then when he looks at me I know there's gonna be Some hot love.

Hot love
a lot of hot love

...

He's just the one that I wanted

He's got that look in his eye

When he stands next to me I feel that ecstasy Creeping up on me

I'm on fire.

Hot love
a lot of hot love

Hot love
a lot of hot love

Hot love
a lot of hot love

Hot love
a lot of hot love.

Hot love
a lot of hot love
...

Then when he looks at me I know There's gonna be some hot love

Hot love
a lot of hot love

Hot love
a lot of hot love. - Oh
hot love.
Hot love
a lot of hot love

Hot love
a lot of hot love.

He's just the one that I wanted
...

Hot love
a lot of hot love
...
