She colours the rainbows
She brightens the sun
Lights up my dreams – bar none
She clears the rain from the skies

Hair long and silky
The sent of cool breeze
Touch of an angel
Descending on me
She's just how summer should be

CHORUS

She's just like summer
Warm and wild and fresh and sweet as a bee
She is my summer
Spring and fall and winter and storms in between
And nothing is better
Than to see her smile and touch the warmth of her skin
Just like the weather
She colours my world just by walking in

She's the beauty of sunsets
Nirvana of life
Exotic and awesome
Eight wonder of life
The break of the dawn of day

So throw away seasons

Throw away sense
Throw in a woman on the green side of the fence
Left my logic back home
My heart was the only thing thinking and racing alone

Yeah, this city really does get a bit too much rain
She can turn a rain cloud into a pot of gold
She's nothing at all like the darkness of night
She's everything wonderful
Everything bright

CHORUS

She's just like summer

Warm and wild and fresh and sweet as a bee
She is my summer
Spring and fall and winter and storms in between
And nothing is better
Than to see her smile and touch the warmth of her skin
Just like the weather
She colours my world just

By walking and talking and smiling within
