Sitting on sound waves demoted to mute
Born into flames like a phoenix
What did the third eye really have in mind?
Tree-shaped temples shred horizons

Cipher your way to the truth
(Center the light inside your bone)
Seek out the god that lurks in you
Contaminated tool
Taken too soon
Blinded by crosses with hands crucified
No longer pledging allegiance

Get in the last word sleepwalking confused
Lost in a search for some purpose
Tectonics collide, a ceasing gear grind
Scribed in light inside my skull

Cipher your way to the truth
(Center the light inside your bone)
Seek out the god that lurks in you
Contaminated tool
Taken too soon
Blinded by crosses with hands crucified
No longer pledging allegiance

Cipher your way
Seek out your god
(Cipher your way to the truth
Seek out the god that lurks in you)
