Sorry, I never meant to hurt you
You know I really love you and
If you give me one more chance
I'll prove it to you

Stop, 'cause I don't wanna hear it
Please don't say your same old speech
Another time, think I have it
Memorized

Again, boy you lied to me
Again, and you're hurting me again
I've made up my mind
And I won't take you back this time

Again don't start calling me
Again no apologies, again
I won't change my mind
I won't take you back this time

I'm sorry, those words for you are easy
You think that they appease me
But I know now they're just two words
You use to play me

Stop, 'cause I will not believe it
This time I'm leaving
All the hurt and pain behind
So I can just be happy once again

Happy once again
This time I will find someone to love me
And find someone to really be my friend
I'll be happy once again, never will I let Another hurt me, like you hurt me so, again

Mr. Eric Clapton

Again, boy you lied to me
Again, and you're hurting me again
I've made up my mind
And I won't take you back this time

Again don't start calling me
Again no apologies, again
I won't change my mind
I won't take you back this time

Again, boy you lied to me
Again, and you're hurting me again
I've made up my mind
And I won't take you back this time

Again don't start calling me
Again no apologies, again
I won't change my mind
I won't take you back this time

Again, again
