She wants you
And baby, I'm not fool
She wants you
So don't you play the fool

You say she's just a friend
But I can see straight through
And baby, I'm not having

Ooh, a true friend indeed
She was just a friend in need
She called to you just for help
She said she didn't have no one else

But I know that some thing's wrong
I felt it while we were on the phone
'Cause she's looking for love
And she's looking at you
I recognize the game, boy

(She wants you)
And baby, I'm not fool
She wants you
She really wants you
So don't you play the fool
Don't deny

You say she's just a friend
But I can see straight through
Baby, I'm not having

No, no, no, no, no
Just you and me
Until this came to be
We never had an argument
Until the day you took her in, yeah

My love, this is killing me
(Yes it is)
The web she weaves underhanded schemes
But I can see what you don't see
I've been here before

And I won't take no more

(She wants you)
And baby, I'm not fool
She wants you
No, no
Don't you play the fool
Gotta see what I see

You say she's just a friend
But I can see straight through
Baby, I'm not having

No, no, never gonna play fool
(Never gonna play a fool no more)
Like in friend of mine
(No, no)
No, not this time

Never gonna let no one take what's mine
(She can't take what's mine)
Said you can't be so blind
I won't just sit here
While she plans for you

So will you believe me?
Gotta believe me
(Baby, believe me)
Everything I say is true

She wants you
And baby, I'm not fool
She wants you
So don't you play the fool
Don't be a fool, baby

(You say she's just a friend)
But I can see straight through
Baby, I'm not having
(Yes I can, yes I can)

I'm not having it, oh
(She wants you)
And baby, I'm not fool
(Baby, I'm not fool, no)
She wants you, yeah
So don't you play the fool

You say she's just a friend
(She's a friend)
But I can see straight through

(But I know she loves you, baby)
