

Kelly Price

"Strange Places"

Visit "Strange Places" on MotoLyrics.com

Bubba walked in
In his baggy jeans and his Prada shoes
He had a
Nice shirt, light skin, nice ice
But he's not the one
The one I choose
He was the type I never had
Country and thug with lots of class
Something inside me made me hesitate
So I made him wait
Then Mickey was the one to treat me right
Until he found the love I tried to hide
He said

Love lives in strange places
It's the obvious that never shows
It just might find you
When you least expect it
You'll never know
You'll never know
Until you just let go

My baby sister
Has got a two-way and a cell phone
She always happy when she gets a page
But it's not love
Girl, it's not whole
Real love isn't digital, isn't physical
It's the one that can reach inside
And you don't know why
But it makes you whole
So if you want the one who reaches deep
Let him see the you that's underneath

Love lives in strange places
It's the obvious that never shows
It just might find you
When you least expect it
You'll never know
You'll never know
Until you just let go

It's in the corners of the sky
It's in the shadows of your mind
Unexpected suddenly
Like the child of destiny
Like a child of destiny
No you can't control the way
So just have faith

Love lives in strange places
It's the obvious that never shows
It just might find you
When you least expect it
You'll never know
You'll never know
Until you just let go
[repeat]
Just let go
Love lives in strange places
Yeah, yeah

Visit Kelly Price page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.