You, you make me, you make feel like I've lost control
And this temptation that I'll never let go
I'm burning deep inside it's catchy
You, you taking me over, taking me over slow

Take my breath away, there's something by the way
you call me
No I can't escape your touch
Tell me is it late, the stars are all aligning around me
No I can't escape your touch

I can't deny, can't deny you

Cause I won't be with you tonight, yeah

Our bodies in a circle we're dancing
Given to the sound sensation
I, I, I'll let you take over, I'll let you take over slow

Take my breath away, there's something by the way
you call me
No I can't escape your touch
Tell me is it late, the stars are all aligning around me
No I can't escape your touch
It feels like morning sun on my skin
